I put my spacesuit on
And count back ten to one
The gravitation pull gets stronger
My skin it pulls away
My brains are on a plate
The weightless feeling here is bliss
as i fly over you
I try admire the view
I contemplate the lies and secrets

This is the best thing that has ever happened to me
These are the colours that I've always wanted to see
And although I've never said it before
I love you, I need you, I need it, I love you

Now I'm embracing you
From the highest altitudes
Through telescopes, our friends they watch us
And these heights are dangerous
From here I can see why
Our astronauts retire early

This is the best thing that has ever happened to me
These are the colours that I've always wanted to see
And although I've never said it before
I love you, I need you, I need it, I love you

This is the best thing!

This is the best thing that has ever happened to me
This is the best thing
These are the colours that I've always wanted to see
This is the best thing
And although I've never said it before
I love you, I need you, I need it, I love you

This is the best thing that has ever happened to me
These are the colours that I've always wanted to see
And although I've never said it before
I love you, I need you, I need it, I love you

This is the best thing
This is the best thing

I need you!

This is the best thing
This is the best thing

I love you, I need you, I need it, I love you
I love you!

I love you, I need you, I need it, I love you...
