

Bordertown "Julie"

Two thousand miles away from you
Cut to the chase, made my debut
Distractions, few and far between Late nights, long days, the drifter scheme
Play for food, so I can eat
Take some pills, so I can sleep

Julie, been best friends and we've seen better days
You'll see, I think it's time we go our separate ways
Julie, stick with it, cause I'll be back some day

You'll see, my face, on the hall of fame

Three thousand miles from nowhere near Step on the stage, make my premiere
Confused , I call you all the time
Counting the highway's dotted lines
Play for booze, suppress and flee rubble thoughts, sift through debris
