Boris - Within my hands

Sometimes your going through the motions.
Sometimes you dont know what to say.
You dont know what you really have.
You dont know that you're much stronger.
Until there's something getting in your way.

It can pull you in, it can push you out.
Lift you up and then knock you down
Raise your head, better shout it out.
And let them know what this is.

Chorus:

This is my time to hold the world within my hands.
Let them know i'm here.
That I got no fears.
This is my time to rise above and make a stand.
Feel i'm getting near.
As it all becomes clear.

Everybody's talking about decisions.
But in the end it's still my choice to make. (to make, to make, to make...)
This time there's no compromise.
I'm not prepared to think it over.
So you better not get in my way.

You can suck me in, you can spit me out.
You know i'm not gonna back down.
Lift my head I can rise above.
And let them know what this is.

Chorus:

This is my time to hold the world within my hands.
Let them know i'm here.
That I got no fears.
This is my time to rise above and make a stand.
Feel i'm getting near.
As it all becomes clear.

Are you a fighter, do you see what they can't see.
Are you a survivor, when they knock down what you believe.
Will you shake their hand when they bring you down.
Will you stand or will you fall.
Just take it higher and you will rise above them all.

(uhooohohooooooooooh)

Repeat chorus.
