[Sole]

Well its 7:45 oh yeah we'll see who's the bigger man

Other dead men walking 4:00p.m. I heard a dead man talking

He said its inconsequential for get it its nice

I'll always get into harlots Ville with this knife getaway

I don't want to buy you a drink forget to piss on your pride little girl

Yeah stepped on your feet you want to eat that dirty white how what ya looking at

The cap bartender tender me some sex on the beach before I reach out and impediment your speech

Once I get'em in my reach unprecedented impeach

He saw a double crossed dance illuminated by disco lights

Unseen unspoken in a scene provoking a thought provoking scene in a smoke scene interrupted by intervening disco lights

aint nobody dancing aint no music everybody still

I can only see one man he looks good enough to kill so I muscle my way through dustless of imposers 10:30 to 10 feet away 5 fingers surround the object of entrapment

I don't need to see his eyes

I feel his jack then his shirt then his skin then his kidneys then out then blood then blood then blood then neck then blood then blood then blood chest

Then I see his girl watching over him like she is gonna cry his little ass back to life

This is my only way I know so I must remove the knife

We eye to eye now goodbye to his life fool

I told you I would get my five dollars back tonight

[Slug]

Another night (night)

Another dollar (dollar)

Another crowd I enlisted to make holler (now scream)

Another I really wish this crowd was a little bit larger Excuse me mister promoter could I bother you

For a couple of bottles of premium placed on the stage

For me and my brethren you know beverages

Intoxication balance and leverage Guessing this is that point where I grab the mic and make my point kick my flow make'em say hoooo blow the lid off the joint ahem: blah blah blah blah blah blah blah blah and then they befriended I love it when this situation happens

This the type of crowd that build self esteem

Come 10:30 is was I finally felt that sting..

(commotion. Yo yo yo yo (hes got a knife) yo what the fucks going on right here, calm the fuck down calm that shit down (that's blood) check check get'em up get off get off)

I shed another blood

you knew I would

I feel you should

adapt

can't run forever trapped death stepped up to shed another blood

you knew I would

adapt

can't run forever

trapped death stepped up to SORRY JUST ALCOHOL

[Dose]

Thanks anyhow its just been one of those days alcohol only

How can you not sell fucking cigarettes at a bar excuse me but I wonder where those two wild women are I've gotten off one minute they're all ears and big eyes then they're wandering off to bark up the next mans tree EXCUSE ME thank you Jesus Christ this place is now that's a foxy young lady if only she would put some clothes on (excuse) enough

I'll just bend and stay in the mean market humm humm humm who are these that shits pretty dope but I can hardly hear his vocals and the bass is too loud Actually this kid is nasty to bad I can't hear the words (excuse me) damn like he couldn't have just walked pass oh and the stare too See everybody want to show you how big their and how little they think I be if it is that the chick Jim was trying to get on she's alright man its hot as balls in here why did I wear this (screaming) he's' got a knife is that blood Oh my God I've never been this that's blood he's dying, gone

[Alias]

Uh uh oh my god twisting and turning what's that sensation of burning yearning to witness some spoken words but now I'm learning but I cant step into the outer limits of my abode without kids acting hard staring glaring yes I'm in the daring mode My girl debated me going out at this nocturnal time she said I should just chill stay in the house and write a rhyme I disagreed and ventured out Totally against all of her wishes stated that if I went to this particular venue I would later be needing stitches but my manhood in the need to ease my mind has forced me out to check and see what this up and coming lyrist is all about Arrived at the show at 9:45 and they're saying these kids are live Waited in line to pay my fee to take my entrance to this dive Already performing up on stage these kids outside smoke deuce the rhymesayer had the crowd by the balls while up in the dj booth final manipulation is complex in the body of its sound mesmerized in higher elevated on the shoulder I feel a pound My right side and his right side connected accidental he's staring in my vision and taking Said something about knocking out dentals then tried it on slowly I paid no attention to his words cuz perusing any challenge by forth at this point would be absurd

I saw no familiar face in the sea of goatees and baseball caps which is fine with me Cuz this ocean is filled with mindless saps just then I heard a scream behind me there was quite a commotion I felt something tap my back once then repeated in this motions oh my god twisting and turning what's this sensation of burning yearning to just witness some spoken word but now I'm learning
I should have listen to my girl when she spoke up and debated if I had then my body and soul would not be separated (oh my god)

I shed another blood you knew I would I feel you should
adapt
can't run forevert rapped death stepped up to
shed another blood
you knew I would I feel you should
adapt
can't run forever trapped death stepped up to
shed another blood
you knew I would I feel you should
adapt
can't run forever trapped death stepped up to
shed another blood
I knew would I feel you should
adapt
can't run forever trapped death stepped up to
shed another blood
you knew I would I feel you should
adapt
cant' run forever trapped death stepped up to
shed another blood you know I would I feel you should
adapt
can't run forever death stepped up to shed another I feel you should
