"Bucket Of Sorrow"

Sitting in my room the walls creep in depression inside i cannot win so undeserving no value in life no one loves me why can't i just die? living day by day in my bucket of sorrows i don't care anymore if i see tomorrow locked in chains of depression what can set me free? what is here for me pondering no response the end of the road oh so it seems i can't control feeling inside of me but the feelings they control me it was Christ that set me free no more pain no more misery in Him i can be complete if you are in pain the answer...Jesus Christ no more... living day by day in my bucket of sorrows i have hope and future in tomorrow unlocked chains of depression i have eternal life in Jesus Christ
