what did you say? you don't like the color of my skin? that i'm not right? enemies til the end? don't you know what is inside? you have been taught a lie now you believe the lie what did you say? you try to put me down with words does that make you feel good because tearing me apart makes you look small your ignorance i'm appalled never will you look inside to see all the beauty inside neither slave nor free nor jew nor greek we are all the same in Christ Jesus
