It's thundering and it's lightning
I know you're scared of storms I hope somebody's holding you and you feel safe and warm and they tell you that they love you and you have everything you need Tonight I'll try to find you somewhere in my dreams

Chorus: And I don't understand it, it don't make sense to me
Why can't we be together, if we're family?
You share my blood, you've got my love
and you're a part of me
It's different worlds that we're living in Don't forget about me, JennaLyn.

I've got some of your pictures of your mom and dad
And I know that they're stick figures, but it still makes me sad Cause I wish that I was right there, holdin' your sweet hand
And now I'm stuck with letters, to tell you who I am.

Chorus: And I don't understand it, it don't make sense
to me
Why can't we be together, if we're family?
You share my blood, you've got my love
and you're a part of me
It's different worlds that we're living in Don't forget about me, JennaLyn. (x2)
