I stand on my own
And wonder if you've ever been alone
With all the world around you
Say the word, I'd be there
And like a fool I'd go anywhere
Just like the day I found you

Tell me what you see Tell me you believe in my love

Tell me what you need Tell me you believe in my love

I don't understand what to say You take my breath and then you Walk away Your life goes on without me

And you can look right at me But in your eyes it's a mystery What do you feel about me?

Tell me if it's real
Tell me you believe in my love

Tell me what you see Tell me you believe in my love

Tell me what to give
Tell me I can live for your love

Tell me not to leave
Tell me to believe in your love

Tell me you believe

Tell me you believe Tell me you believe Tell me you believe in my love

I don't really know what to say I don't know how, but I could learn to pray If prayin' makes you hear me

I could stay on my own And wonder if I would have ever known But I just want you near me

Tell me if it's real Tell me what you feel in my love

Tell me what you need Tell me you believe in my love

Tell what to give
Tell me how to live for your love

Tell me what you see Tell me to believe in your love
