Why did you
Say goodbye when there's so
Much to do
You ask me what, I say you
You're just like me
The things you do make me cry
You hurt yourself and then ask why

There you wait
And what i do you copy me
If you want
Its up to you people say
Why do you do
The things you do make me cry
Let them down at least I tried

You're the reason that I did what I do
But now you've finally changed, you're nothing like you

Sorry if I made you like me
Be your own best that you can be
A puppet without strings
An angel who just got his wings
Occupy thoughts of mine
yes you do
All the time
But now we're through
I can be just like me
And you can be just like you
Make it up what else is new

You're the reason that I did what I do
But now you've come n changed you're nothing like you

Sorry if I made you like me
Be your own best that you can be
A puppet without strings
An angel who just got his wings

Sorry if I made you like me
Be your own best that you can be
A puppet without strings

An angel who just got his wings
