Somebody's made a fool out of me
Somebody's gonna get it through the teeth Nobody ever knows where I'm at Somebody shoulda thought about that I would not call my bluff, 'cause I swear I've had enough (No, no, no, no, no) your kid little sister is home all alone
She's right in the middle of the danger zone

Let the war begin, your world ends in violence
Tell the war to come in, your world ends in silence, hey hey

Now I'm not a violent man I never say much but I do what I can
But I've been known to have a change of heart
You should have seen it from the very start, very start I put a knife in your back
I make you think about your last attack
You should have been thinking all along That what you thought was all wrong

Let the war begin, your world ends in violence
Tell the war to come in, your world ends in silence
Let the war begin, your world ends in violence
Tell the war to come in, your world ends in silence

[Left:]

("great britain went to war against germany today, 25 years 30 days. tied at the end of the war 1914 against britain.")

("and behold the saga, has struck it into the back of it's name.") ([singing in german, indistinctively]) ("goodnight, children! good night and good luck to you")

[Right:]

("and behold, the norwegian remains the black americans of an old move. the long magic bottoms in notre dame. I'm begging you!") ("... damn right to make goal! ready to contact fire!

cease fire! cease fire!")

I'll tell people what I'm gonna do I'll tell them all what is wrong with you I'll tell the world the war has begun
We're all responsible for what we have done

Let the war begin, your world ends in violence
Tell the war to come in, your world ends in silence
Let the war begin, your world ends in violence
Tell the war to come in, your world ends in silence
Let the war begin, your world ends in violence
Tell the war to come in, your world ends in silence
