the reason why i go so goddamn hard, cuz when i came up shit was so damn hard. daddy wasn't home, momma worked like a slave.

thats why im so focused when it comes to getting paid. thats why i talk money shit and dream of better days.

thats why you niggas see me getting so many ways.

cuz i aint have it, i aint investing a broad. i just prayed to the lord that he watched me and protect me as i take charge. took records like i taking this one.

set up in my room, rapping was a nigge system. no recorder just a get from got to remember what i said in my head is where the hits come from. what you know about the 24 hours grind 24 track mind, you aint have a thing at the same time.

it was rough but thats the kinda stuff that you go through, if you wanna get it like i got mine.

(Jermaine dupri)

Sitting on the black, and i'm doing bad. dreaming about the things that i never had. got me thinking to my self what got me getting mad, you can play if you want but you gon getting that. i said, all my life i know one day he planned to leave our love.

i rememberd when i was 5 years old, i told my momma she aint have to work no more. bank is so so, i'm singing more dough, dreamed big like curtis, i knew what i blow. ohayo ye thats where im from, track boy still getting money in the slums, lil nigge is 13, in a hood packing guns, it's fucked up. they give my nigge bark 20 months, so imma hold this down in this baby momma down.

middle finger to my paps, nigge never was around, and everything i learned, i learned from jermaine. even vikingin could't take away the pain, got a black president but shit still the same. police still shooting black kids everyday, one a harrases than they want the coffers stereotypin but where is the justice? they ride.
