Chorus:

You better cuff yo chick
When you see us out nigga
You better cuff yo chick you better keep her close to ya
you better cuff yo chick you better grab her tight cuz you know we got millions for real

Bow Wow

You better cuff her like a cop every time you see bow wow wow wow come around she love my swag
and she already know how a young nigga puts it down she said she want a baller, not a bench warmer you aint even in the game yet cant keep yo broad, you so lame, damn where yo GAME at and if we in the club you better cuff yo girl super tight cuz it just might be your girl who end up in my room tonight big pimpin, no simpin, you know just how i does it take yo girl, in front of you, and you ain't gone do nothin she want me to take her home, she blowin up my phone even got, "you can get it all" on her ringtone you girl so out of pocket, you know that she be boppin she know we ballin, so she wants to ride my Houston rocket

(Chours)

Fabolous:

Mr. Officer, Mr. Officer would you please take them handcuffs off of her cuz there's so many things I could offer her tell her "dead that" and I got the coffin bra I'm sorry for your lose it must be awful huh my money tall, yours is like a dwarf so uh we kick it, I'm down like it's 4th and uh I think she wanna give me head, how thoughtful huh you see me in new york, see me in LA See me in miami, see me in the A Might see me in houston, or see me in the bay But its gonna be hard to see me with that nigga in the way

(Chours)

No it ain't drizzy, its ya boy em dolla no i ain't rich, but cuff yo chick by the collar cuz if a little nigga like me tryna holla then I gaurentee ya'll breakin up tomorrow.
I know she your everything, I just feed her protine beat it in the bed sheets, and put her in a deep sleep And when she wake up she always askin for a repeat I know she rep the "A" but I put her on my B-team I ain't gonna sell a dream, but the last girl I sold D I had her relapsin like a fiene Nino Brown type, what she want in her life Is a nigga like me layin pipe, you better cuff yo chick

(chours)
