Belgium

Lately i feel so small
Or maybe it's just that my bed has grown
I never noticed it before but you were there
So how was i to know

BRIDGE

That this single bed
Was always meant for two
Not just anyone
It was meant for me and you

CHORUS

And now you're halfway round the world
And im just a day behind
Nothin seems to fill the hole
That i have since you left my side
You'll always be my little girl
Though i can't hold you tonight
And now you're halfway round the world
And i'm just a day behind

I wake up in the night
I turn around and find that you're not there
I just like to watch you sleep and lay by you
I love to feel you near
I think im going crazy
Everyday confusion starts to grow
I never noticed it before
But you were there so how was i to know

That this single bed
Was always meant for two
Not just anyone
It was meant for me and you

And now you're halfway round the world
And im just a day behind
Nothin seems to fill the hole
That i have since you left my side

You'll always be my little girl
Though i can't hold you tonight
And now you're halfway round the world
And i'm just a day behind

Lately i feel so small
Or maybe it's just that my bed has grown
I never noticed it before but you were there
So how was i to know

And now you're halfway round the world
And im just a day behind
Nothin seems to fill the hole
That i have since you left my side
You'll always be my little girl
Though i can't hold you tonight
And now you're halfway round the world
And i'm just a day behind

Just a day behind (4x's)
