America, a beautiful girl
A gift to the world from outside of town
A train wreck with unbelievable skin
Hey, where have you been we haven't seen you around

You know you don't have to be so mean
We hear it loud and clear when you say
That you don't give a whoop, whoop

America, she bullies at school
Her parents were cool but now she's out on her own Happiness as long as she's right and she's quick to fight
Yeah, she's looking kinda rough

She says just recognize, recognize
'Cause she don't give a whoop, whoop
'Cause she don't give a whoop, whoop
'Cause she don't give a

'Cause she don't give a whoop, whoop
'Cause she don't give a whoop, whoop
'Cause she don't give a

Wake up America, don't wanna fight anymore
Wake up America, wake up America
Wake up America, don't wanna fight anymore
Wake up America, now pick yourself off the floor

America, she lost all her friends
The fun never ends until you buy your own beer
Rehab so bitter and wired
So used up and tired, hey, your looking pretty rough

She says just recognize, recognize
'Cause she don't give a whoop, whoop
'Cause she don't give a whoop, whoop
'Cause she don't give a

'Cause she don't give a whoop, whoop
'Cause she don't give a whoop, whoop
'Cause she don't give a

Wake up America, don't wanna fight anymore
Wake up America, wake up America
Wake up America, don't wanna fight anymore
Wake up America, now pick yourself off the floor

Wake up Amy your alarm clocks beeping
Wake up Amy your alarm clocks on
Wake up Amy your alarm clocks beeping
Waking up the neighbors it goes on and on

Wake up Amy your alarm clocks beeping
Wake up Amy your alarm clocks on
Wake up Amy your alarm clocks beeping
Waking up the neighbors it goes on and on and on

Wake up America, don't wanna fight anymore
Wake up America, wake up America
Wake up America, don't wanna fight anymore
Wake up America, now pick yourself off the floor

Wake up America, don't wanna fight anymore
Wake up America, wake up America
Wake up America, don't wanna fight anymore
Wake up America, now pick yourself off the floor
