I remember watching the sunset
You reached out and touched my hand
That night is like a picture frame in my mind
Tell me, do you ever think about that?

I remember making out in the backseat
I stuck my hand up your shirt
And I was so nervous
My heart was racing and my stomach hurt

(Chorus)
Sometimes I wonder
If you ever think about me
Sometimes I wonder
Do you ever think about me?
I'll always remember you
I'll always remember you (that way)
I'll always remember you
The years have gone
The times have changed
I don't recall much from those days
I'll always remember you (that way)

I remember how you gave me your jacket
It must have been winter time
They were playing our song
We were singing along
We knew every line

I remember I was freezing my ass off
And you made me give you my coat
And I don't remember a song
Or even if I had a radio

Chorus

Do you remember the moonlight in my hair?
I remember pulling your hair
I told my friends that it was love
I told mine you couldn't get enough

I'll always remember you

Always remember you
The moon and the stars
The back of my car
That time that was ours
The back of my car
The memories are different
But we're not the same, man
I'll always remember you that way

I'll always remember you
I'll always remember you (that way)
I'll always remember you
The years have gone
The times have changed
I don't recall much from those days
I wish sometimes I was back in those days
I'll always remember you (that way)
Always remember
I'll always remember you (that way)
Always remember
I'll always remember you (that way)
