Me, I never had a clue.
But now me, I've got you.
Me and you've got something that has long been overdue.
I hope you hang around, and baby, we'll get down.
We'll get down and boogie, and we're gonna paint the town.

So honey take my hand.
Could I please have this dance...
I'm all in...
I'm gonna live it up... Right now.
Everybody give it up... Right now.

You know it's been too long
It's been too long,
It's been too long,
Since I've felt this way.
It's been too long
It's been too long,
It's been too long
I guess I've never felt this way...

You, such a dream come true.
To me a dream is you.
I love to watch you laugh and sing like only you can do.
So won't you hold my hand,
And save me your last dance...
I'm all in...

We're gonna live it up... Right now.
Everybody give it up... Right now.
You know it's been too long
It's been too long,
It's been too long,
Since I've felt this way.
It's been too long
It's been too long,
It's been too long
I guess I've never felt this way...

And I'll be your happy ever after, you'll be mine.

And now my whole world's brighter with you here by my side...

Everybody live it up... Right now.

Everybody give it up... Right now. (Let's live it up right now...)

Everybody live it up... Right now. (Let's live it up right now...)

Everybody give it up... Right now. (Let's live it up...)

You know it's been too long

It's been too long,

It's been too long,

Since I've felt this way.

It's been too long

It's been too long,

Too long

Since I've felt this way

Since I've felt this way

I guess I've never felt this way.
