Nothing to do but sit around and make a mess with you
Watching the world from your rooftop looking down
We never care, summertime and we ain't going anywhere
No goodbyes

We're only young, running wild
Only young, get it right
We've got all the time in the world tonight

We're only young, you and I
Only young, let it ride
Right here, right here the best night of our lives

Let's go down in flames, tomorrow's just a million miles away
We got tonight, so let's tear this town apart
We'll never change, we'll party like it's graduation day
No goodbyes, we'll stay right here, laugh 'til we cry

We're only young, running wild
Only young, get it right
We've got all the time in the world tonight

We're only young, you and I
Only young, let it ride
Right here, right here the best night of our lives

Tonight, tonight, we'll make some history
Tonight, tonight, we'll burn some memories
Tonight, tonight, legends never die

Tonight, tonight, it's like a movie
Tonight, tonight, the way it should be Tonight, tonight, all we've got is time

We're only and we don't care
If we get old and lose our hair
Right now the best night of our lives

We're only young, running wild
Only young, get it right

We've got all the time in the world tonight

We're only young, you and I
Only young, let it ride
Right here, right here the best night of our lives

Only young, running wild
Only young, get it right
Only young

Only young, you and I
Only young, let it ride
Only young, the best night of our lives
