Its not the end of the world
In fact its not even the end of the summer
But thank God the TV is on
'Cuz there's no way we could know

Anything that is goin' down
Or how were supposed to be feeling about it
I cant tell you how much I wish we Could shut up and smile, yea

Sail around the world and tell
Them all to keep singing it
La la la la la la
All we needs a harmony and we'll
Convince the world to sing
La la la la la la

Throw your arms around someone
Throw your arms around someone
Maybe spread a little love
I know it sounds a little dumb
Maybe I'm a little drunk
But all we need is some ice cream and a hug

Take a good look around
Does life really suck?
Are we just complaining
I hope that this mic is on

'Cuz I'm on a roll here
I hope this is making some sense
I hope that you'll throw up your hands and sing it
And tell all the haters that they should
Just shut up and smile, yea

Sail around the world and tell
Them all to keep singing it
La la la la la la
All we needs a harmony and we'll
Convince the world to sing
La la la la la la

Throw your arms around someone
Throw your arms around someone
Maybe spread a little love
I know it sounds a little dumb
Maybe I'm a little drunk
But all we need is some ice cream

All we need is love and beer
And old school metal and holiday cheer
To be happy
All you need is someone near
Like Ben and Jerry to hold you close
And pretend that they care

Can we all just, get along now
We found something that we
All have in common now
We can hold hands, do keg stands
Water skiing sounds great to me now

Sail around the world and tell
Them all to keep singing it
La la la la la la
All we needs a harmony and we'll
Convince the world to sing
La la la la la la

Throw your arms around someone
Throw your arms around someone
Maybe spread a little love
I know it sounds a little dumb
Maybe I'm a little drunk
But all we need is some ice cream and a hug

All we need is some ice cream and a hug
All we need is some ice cream and a hug
All we need is some ice cream and a hug
