It seems like every time you reap
I am nowhere to be seen,
But I know you'll be 'round tomorrow.

I have warned you to stand clear,
But you're walkin' on thin air,
And if you fell I would not care.

Let me say goodbye to images not of myself,
'Cause I think I finally found the one I wanted you to see.

Seems like every time you write
We just end up in a fight,
but I know you'll be 'round tomorrow.

I have tried to make you see ,
But you're around constantly,
And you may just suffocate me.

Let me say goodbye to images not of myself,
'Cause I think I finally found the one I wanted you to see.

Seems like everywhere I go,
I feel fine until you show,
And I know you'll be 'round tomorrow.

I wish you would let it end.
I don't want to be you friend.
Please get off you're smothering me.

Let me say goodbye to images not of myself,
'Cause I think I finally found the one I wanted you to see.

Let me say goodbye to images not of myself,
'Cause I think I finally found the one I wanted you to see.
