Sail away, sail away with me
I don't have a ship
But we could get one easily

Drift away, drift away with me
On the raft we'll make of memories
In an ocean we can call forever more

I wanna find
Piece of your mind
I wanna see
Your make believe

I don't wanna try so hard
I make it hard for you to breathe

Jump into the ocean
Living on a notion
If you're caught up in the motion
Back track and do it again

And if you make it up
I could never get enough
Me and you together
But you've gotta tell me where to begin

Break away, break away from me
No forget that
Just sit here and look at me

Summer's day, summer every day
We watch the sunset come back up
And we know it's never going down again

I wanna find
Piece of your mind
I wanna see
Your make believe

I don't wanna try so hard
I make it hard for you to breathe

Jump into the ocean
Living on a notion
If you're caught up in the motion
Back track and do it again

And if you make it up
I could never get enough
Me and you together
But you've gotta tell me where to begin

I've been saving up to buy more time with you
You've been living it up with someone else
And that's okay
I know it, you know it too

Jump into the ocean
Living on a notion
If you're caught up in the motion

And if you make it up
Me and you together

Where to begin
You've gotta tell me where to begin
