Feels like an earthquake
Just knocked me to the floor
It's so over-rated
To make someone happy anymore

Cause like a gun-shot
There's a hole in your heart
And it's bleeding
And it's bleeding
Call this meeting to order now

Is the world falling apart
Or is it just breaking down
Is it me, or does it seem like it's turned upside down
Is the world falling apart
Or is it just breaking down
Cause without you I don't see how it keeps spinning
round

Feel like a playwright
With a script that makes no sense
The curtain never opens
But the casting call seems such a great success

Like a nosedive
That takes your breath away
But you're still breathing
Still breathing

But is my world falling apart
Or is it just breaking down

Is it me, or does it seem like it's turned upside down
Is the world falling apart
Or is it just breaking down
Cause without you I don't see how it keeps spinning
round
Spinning round
Spinning round

It's like I can't feel anything but this
I am not the same boy that I used to be

Someone tell me please
Drop down to your knees
Put your head to the ground
And tell me, do you feel it shaking now

But is my world falling apart
Or is it just breaking down
Is it me, or does it seem like it's turned upside down
Is the world falling apart
Or is it just breaking down
Because without you I don't see how it keeps spinning
round

(World Falling Apart)

No without you I don't see how it keeps spinning round

(World Falling Apart)

Without you I don't see
