"Below"

The building turned its back
Ignored my call
The concrete looks
Too thin to break my fall.
The sunset stretched across
This night time scene
I counted people as I
Neared the street below.
Whooo, below, whooo.

I saw it all
I saw it all go down.
The shadow grew as
He approached the ground.
The sunset stretched across
this night time scene.
I turned away as he
Came near the street below.
Whooo, below. (x2)

Let's forget this all and move on. (x7)
