Eat a bag of shit you suck
I can't believe the luck you have
Its not bestowed upon me
And my pants are falling down
I would have another drink
Except it might be poisoned
By my mind
And my pants are falling down
I don't know what you've been drinking
But pour another one for me
My pants are falling down
The room is spinning around
My stomach is making funny sounds
I'm falling down
"Fuck you I hate you"
Is all she said as she slapped my face
And spit beer on me
And my pant are falling down
She said, "You're a no good, ugly, dumb, stupid punk rocker
With a bad haircut And your pants are falling down"
I don't know what you've been smoking
But pack another bowl for me
My pants are falling down
The room is spinning around
My stomach is making funny sounds
I'm falling down (yeah)
I'm falling down
