Knowing you as I do, my love for you
Will tear me up inside
If love is for fools, what can I do?
I'm not here for the ride

(I'm asking you) Where did you leave your heart?
(I'm asking you) Where did you leave your heart?

I can never believe, I can never believe
In someone who loves the way you do
I can never believe, never ever believe
In someone who loves the way you do

What will we ever learn, all those bridges we burn
The foolish things that we do
Tears for the day when you came my way
The first time that you lied

(I'm asking you) Where did you leave your heart?
(I'm asking you) Where did you leave your heart?

I can never believe, I can never believe
In someone who loves the way you do
I can never believe, I can never believe
In someone who hurts the way you do
I can never believe, I can never believe
In someone who loves the way you do
I can never believe, I can never believe
In someone who hurts the way I do

Knowing me as I do, my love for you
It's gonna tear me up inside
If love is for fools then what can I do?
Yeah I'm not here for the ride

(I'm asking you) Oh where did you leave your heart?
(I'm asking you) Oh where did you leave your heart?

I can never believe, I can never believe
In someone who loves the way you do
I can never believe, I can never believe

In someone who hurts the way you do
I can never believe, I can never believe
In someone who hurts the way you do
I can never believe, I can never believe
In someone who loves the way you do
