Spooky

Come on down and meet yourself all your former glory
You should know the truth by now that's another story
Can I look beyond your promises to where my future lies
Can I rise to your dishonesty too much compromise

This is the spooky truth ain't no hope, ain't no use
This is the spooky truth and my heart won't be denied
One more night

There's no use denying we can write the ending now
All the tears, the frustration all the why, and what, and how
Can I look into the future see your spirits rise
Can we advise on truth and passion all our sorry lies

This is the spooky truth ain't no hope ain't no use
This is the spooky truth ain't no love ain't no proof

This is the spooky truth and my heart won't be denied
One more night

Spooky.....
Spooky.....
Spooky boy
Spooking me

This is the spooky truth ain't no hope ain't no use
This is the spooky truth ain't no love ain't no proof
This is the spooky spooky spooky spooky truth
This is the spooky truth I need love I need proof
This is the spooky truth and my heart won't be denied
One more night
