Saying sorry
Would mean I've apologised
And you know I was good to you baby
There were very few lies

Now that you ask me
I'm no saint inside
The same things you feel little darling
I don't try to hide

When I think about the laughter
Directed at me
I don't give a damn anymore
If they don't see what I see

We've got the right to love
We've got the chance to make it work
We've got the right to love
Yes we got the right

That's where you get me, yes you do
Almost every time
When it comes down to making love
It has to be right

When I think about the laughter
Directed at me
I don't give a damn anymore
If they don't see what I see

We've got the right to love
We've got the chance to make it work
We've got the right to love
Yes we got the right

Don't put the blame on me
I won't tell you no lies
Don't put the blame on me
Got no time for compromise

We've got the right to love
We've got the chance to make it work

We've got the right to love
Yes we got the right
