I got a couple addictions
But I swear that I'm coming clean
I got a new way of thinking
Yeah, you're bringing out the best in me

I got a bit of a history
But you're telling me that you don't care
I've been a bit of a mystery
The only thing that I could find around tonight was you
So come on, come on
You want to

[CHORUS]:
Shut your eyes
And feel the chemicals collide
You and I tonight
You're the sugar in my pie
Shut your eyes
I feel the chemicals collide
Stars and satellites
Spinnin' round and round
On the night you saved my life

I got a couple of problems
A thousand puzzles runnin' through my head
But I think that you could solve them
You're always just one step ahead

I've had a couple heartbreaks
But you're telling me that it's all right
'Cause all the others were mistakes
Yeah, I think this time I finally got it right with you

So come on, come on
You want to

Shut your eyes
And feel the chemicals collide
You and I tonight
You're the sugar in my pie
Shut your eyes
I feel the chemicals collide

Stars and satellites
Spinnin' round and round
On the night you saved my life

And the warning is breaking
And your heart is shaking
I remember how it feels right now
And we're lost in the moment
The sky is exploding
Just keep on floating

Shut your eyes
And feel the chemicals collide
You and I tonight
You're the sugar in my pie
Shut your eyes
Stars and satellites
On the night...

Shut your eyes
And I feel so alive
