I got a couple addictions
But I swear that I'm coming clean
I got a new way of thinking
Yeah, you're bringing out the best in me

I got a bit of a history
But you're telling me that you don't care
I've been a bit of a mystery
The only thing that I could find around tonight was you

So come on, come on, you want to
Shut your eyes and feel the chemicals collide
You and I tonight, you're the sugar in my high
Shut your eyes, I feel the chemicals collide
Stars and satellites spinning round and round
On the night you saved my life

I got a couple of problems
A thousand puzzles running through my head
But I think that you could solve them
You're always just one step ahead

I've had a couple of heartbreaks
But you're telling me that it's all right
'Cause all the others were mistakes
Yeah, I think this time I finally got it right with you

So come on, come on, you want to
Shut your eyes and feel the chemicals collide
You and I tonight, you're the sugar in my high
Shut your eyes, I feel the chemicals collide
Stars and satellites spinning round and round
On the night you saved my life

Well, the morning is breaking and your heart is shaking
I remember how it feels right now
Well, we're lost in the moment
The sky is exploding, just keep on floating

Shut your eyes, feel the chemicals collide
You and I tonight, you're the sugar in my high
Shut your eyes, I feel the chemicals collide

Stars and satellites spinning round and round tonight

Shut your eyes, I feel the chemicals collide
I feel so alive spinning round and round
On the night you saved my life
