Cold December nights like this make me really scared
You're not really there
And my tree is really bare
Another lonely night

No gifts, no toys underneath my tree
Can this really be
I'm singing Christmas Carols
And there's no Christmas for me

Why aren't you next to me celebrating Christmas?
Why can't you see what hurts so bad?
How can you go without paying mind to my sorrow?
You can't imagine, how I feel on this cold December
night

The stars shine bright as the night air
And the thought of you not being here
Makes me shed a tear
And yet matters remain unclear

About why you're gone
Or if you'll ever return to this broken heart
Life is so torn apart
And God knows, Lord knows where I need to start rebuilding

Why aren't you next to me celebrating Christmas?
Why can't you see what hurts so bad?
How can you go without paying mind to my sorrow?
You can't imagine, how I feel on this cold December
night

Why aren't you next to me celebrating Christmas?
Why can't you see what hurts so bad?
How can you go without paying mind to my sorrow?
You can't imagine, how I feel on this cold December
night

Why aren't you next to me celebrating Christmas?
Why can't you see what hurts so bad?
How can you go without paying mind to my sorrow?

You can't imagine, how I feel on this cold December
night
