[verse 1]

the last kiss we shared, tasted like a wine sweet and bitter like, our memories and i long for you to, come right back to me tomorrow the time will be the same as today nothing goes on in my heart except your memories where will you be, and who will you think of...!

[chorus]

you were always gonna be my love and you should know
even if i fall in love with somebody else i'll remember to love you taught me how you were always gonna be the one and for now, i'll still be singing this love song for... somebody like you my first love...

[verse 2]

time after time, baby i tried to forget our life together but the memories are so so hard to let go
trying to hold back the tears when thinking of you all i want is to be with you once more...!

[chorus 2]

you will always be inside my heart
and you should know that i wish that i could ever let you go i know that i love you [?] now and forever see the one
and for now, i'll still be singing this love song
my first love...

[chorus]

even if i fall in love with somebody else i'll remember to love you to hell you were always gonna be the one i'll still be singing this love song

my first love...
