Settling along the scenery, beneath the steady fall
The dusk accompanies a loneliness, descending as snow Tears can drown the embers in this broken heart of mine
Another portrait in my life watching the seasons passing by

Crystallizing every breath I take, even the subtle sighs
The wind carries a solemn melody through uncovered trees
At the red brick station the trains can catch their breath And I've been patient, waiting for someone who won't come back to me

Tonight the tears will go away, I'll find a way to play this Serenade
How can I break this song away from my emotions
The snow is falling down to kiss and help me reminisce and celebrate My tears are falling from the sky and turn to White Love

chorous:

By the time the bells are swinging in their rhythmic symphony Imagining a dreamy Winterland is where I will be Angels all around, floating slowly from the sky And bring a look of tenderness only the spring can show me how

So I'll be holding on strong and keep from going on to Loneliness
The glistening angels in the sky are waiting for me

And I will wish upon a star and carry in my heart for Foreverness
These tears eventually will frost and turn to White Love chrous:

Tonight the tears will go away, I'll find a way to play this
Serenade
How can I break this song away from my emotions

Give me one chance so I can shine and reminisce the time and celebrate
My tears are falling from the sky and turn to White Love

White Love 2x
My Love

I just want to hold you Can't be without you I'm calling out your name
In my heart
