Here on the dark side of the storm
Still you carry on
But you can see no silver lining
When everyone has gone
And you find yourself alone
Trying to avoid the lightning

Chorus'Â€Â¡...

Don't give up, don't give in
Don't let the darkness inside you win
You know the sun will shine again
And you'll back on your feet again
Learning to breathe again

Right now everything is wrong
But you know it wont be long
Til you're back on your feet again

When you're reaching for that dream
And it's further than it seems
You've got to keep on fighting
When you're at your lowest
Still so numb from the coldness
And you feel like no doors open

Don't give up, don't give in
Every road has a place it begins
Walk the line, and in time
You'll be back on your feet again
Learning to breathe again... yeah, yeah, yeah...

Right now everything is wrong
But you know it wont be long
Til you're back on your feet again

When you finally feel you're home... ohhhh
And you know your life's your own... ohhhh
It's when you're feeling low... you know...

That you're back on your feet again...
That you're back on your feet again...
That you're back on your feet again...
That you're back on your feet again...
That you're back on your feet again...
That you're back on your feet again...
That you're back on your feet again...
