Every time I go away
You know, I want to stay
I feel like I'm torn in two
I try to overcome this pain
There's no easy way
I'm already missing you
As I look out over the northern lights
I can almost feel you here tonight (2x)

Chorus:

Even if I'm gone
And it feels like it's forever
I pray I'll soon be home
In your lovin' arms again
And even if I'm gone
There's a part of you still with me
Close my eyes and I think how beautiful
And I know I'm not alone.

So I'm trying to be strong
I know I carry on
I still feel the emptiness
If only I can find a way
To be together every day, then I stray
Back to the loneliness
See the full moon shine in the distant sky
I can almost feel you by my side (2x)

Chorus:

See the full moon shine in the distant sky
And I wonder if you can hear me crying
Hear me cry...
Soon be home...
In your loving arms...

(Close my eyes)

Chorus
