By Paul Barry, Ronan Keating and Mark Taylor

If I could just hold you now
If I could just feel you now
I wouldn't be standing out in the rain
Pounding my heart right through my brain
If I could just hold you now

If I could just get inside
If I could just read your mind
I wouldn't be shaking this hard tonight
I wouldn't be choking back all this pride
If I could just hold you now

How many times
Can we try to keep this crazy love alive
How many tears
And can I tell you all the things
You need to hear

If I could just hold you now
If I could just feel you now
I wouldn't be standing in the rain
Pounding my heart right through my brain
If I could just hold you now

Ain't it funny how we had it all
Ain't it funny how the mighty fall
I guess that we were just a space in time
But it felt so real it felt so right

If I could just hold you now
If I could just feel you now
I wouldn't be shaking this hard tonight
I wouldn't be choking back all this pride
If I could just hold you now

How many times
Can we try to keep this crazy love alive
How many tears
Can I tell you all the things
You need to hear

If I could just hold you now
If I could just feel you now
I wouldn't be standing out in the rain
Pounding my heart right through my brain
If I could just hold you now

If I could just hold you,
I guess I should've told you
If I could just hold you now
If I could just feel you now
I wouldn't standing in the rain
Pounding my heart right through my brain
If I could just hold you now
