I never meant to hurt you baby.
I didn't wanna cause you any pain.
But you never knew how I felt know honey.
And you know you didn't even know why...

so I wanna put my heart in its place...
and I wanna be the person that you fell in love with.

I've been told there'll be another (or so they say).
But I guess never like the other.
And so I'll shed my tears,
and I'll face my fears.
I've been told there'll be another.

A cry for help will sound the same now baby...
and I know that people just don't change,
but I guess you can't hope
and wish they will, yeah...
So I wanna put my heart in its place,
and I wanna be the person that you fell in love with.

I've been told there'll be another (or so they say),
but I guess never like the other...
And so I'll shed my tears,
and I'll face my fears...
I've been told there'll be another.

So I wanna scream and tell myself it'll be okay.
And in a final verse I tell you what I wanna say...

I've been told there'll be another (or so they say),
but I guess never like the other...
and so I'll shed my tears,
and I'll face my fears...
I've been told there'll be another.

So I guess I'm still learning.
