In hometowns, suburban and transient
Romances, just like yours, are bound again,
To all you lovers, gather around you,
To see what you have become

No acting, while you're here, a lonely road
It's just kids having, more kids for
Fear of being alone
To all you lovers, gather around you,
To see what you have become

I was looking for the one
But I guess you'll do

No acting, while you're here, a lonely road
It's just kids having, more kids for
Fear of being alone
To all you lovers, gather around you,
To see what you have become

I was looking for the one
But I guess you'll do

In hometowns, suburban and transient
Romances, just like yours happen again.
