Give me, give me, give me, oh! x3
Give me, give me, give me.

The clock is ticking, and my heart's beating to the sound
'cause you keep pushing me deep into the ground
I'm sick of waiting, contemplating when you're gonna turn back.
My heart is hanging by a thread, my mind is made up.

CHORUS

Give me a moment, just til the end of time.
Give me one more chance to say "you're mine"
Give me a moment, say that you will be mine,
I'm forever waiting by your side.

Ain't you got the time to give up on the things that you do?
The heads are crossing over, and I ain't with you.
I'm tired of walking down the winding road that leads to your door.
And I know you'll never pick me up, you leave me on the floor.

REPEAT CHORUS

Give me, give me, give me, oh!
Give me, give me, give me, oh!
Give me, give me!

REPEAT CHORUS x3

Give me one more chance to say you're mine. x3

You're shouting, shouting, give me a moment. x4
