Yeah baby
You're like no other
When the sky falls down, all I see is you
Mmmm, let's discover
And thin around us is all too good to be true

There isn't no time between us
We can do whatever we want
So girl, let's get gone

Sometimes I think about that someday
When the moon ripples down your body
How much I wish I could hit replay
See my reflection in your eyes

It feels so reassuring
To know that you love what I'm doing
You know how much I hate
Just saying goodbye, I wish I could change it

Lemme tell you
I will be there when you're in need
It's you I'll see

But you know I'll never run from you
You always count on me
Did you know it's about time we saw each other again
My heart needs you right away

Lemme tell you
I will be there when you're in need
It's you I'll see

But you know I'll never run from you
You always count on me

Lemme tell you
I will be there when you're in need
It's you I'll see

But you know I'll never run from you

You always count on me
