Kevin wasn't really all that popular in school
But I remember well the day I thought
Now, that guy's pretty cool
He pulled into the parking lot and everybody cheered
'Cause he'd gone and painted his entire Chevy Cavalier

Camouflage, camouflage
It disappears when it pulls out of his garage
Camouflage, camouflage

Well, I asked Jenny to the prom
And her mom knew how to sew
So she made a matching tux
And gown from Duck Blind Mossy Oak

We took pictures in the backyard
Before we went to the dance
And the only thing that you can see
Is our faces and our hands

Camouflage, camouflage
You should've seen the way it popped with her corsage
Camouflage, camouflage
Ain't nothing doesn't go with camouflage

You can blend in in the country
You can stand out in the fashion world
Be invisible to a whitetail
Irresistible to a redneck girl

Camouflage, camouflage
Oh, you're my favorite color, camouflage

You can blend in in the country
You can stand out in the fashion world
Be invisible to a whitetail
Irresistible to a redneck girl

Well, the stars and bars offend some folks
And I guess I see why
But nowadays there's still a way
To show your Southern pride

The only thing as patriotic
As the old red, white and blue
It's green and gray and black
And brown and tan all rolled into

Camouflage, camouflage
Designed by Mother Nature and by God
It's camouflage, camouflage
You're my favorite color, camouflage, yeah
