"Get Even"

After how he treated you he cheated you and lied
I guess you could go curl up into a ball and cry Or you could turn a heartache into sweet revenge at last
'Cause two can cheat at this game baby, pay backs a blast

Get even with him, with me
You been done wrong for so long, now you're free
Don't get angry, don't get filled with jealousy
Get even with him, with me

If I know that jackass well there's one thing he can't stand
He wasn't faithful in the least but, find another man
He's going to go crazy thinking about how much he lost Your lips, your kiss, your touch, come on Let's really piss him off!

Get even with him, with me
You been done wrong for so long, now you're free
Don't get angry, don't get filled with jealousy
Get even with him, with me

Get even with him, with me
You been done wrong, for so long, now you're free
Don't get angry, don't get filled with jealousy
Get even with him, with me
