We must come together
And unite as one
You are me
I am you
We are all just human
Just another face on Earth

We are more alike then different
And our differences compare
But when we come together
We are, we are
The people of the world
All must stick together
Fight as one
Because together we stand
Divided we fall

Peace and harmony
Is what we should have
No more fear, no more tears
Just feel free to live our lives
We might not all believe in the same things
But this we can all agree

We are more alike then different
And our differences compare
But when we come together
We are, we are
The people of the world
All must stick together
Fight as one
Because together we stand
Divided we fall

I don't want to leave this world
Knowing that the world is made of hate
Because if we don't fix this now
Who knows when it will end

We are more alike then different
And our differences compare
But when we come together

We are, we are
The people of the world
All must stick together
Fight as one
Because together we stand
Divided we fall
