I can't escape
I can't break loose
I can't regain control
I'm stuck inside a memory
A nightmare gone wrong
Now those days are passed
But I'm still stuck in the past

Run away, from all the pain
Run away, get me out of this place
I can't handle this confusion
I'm unable to understand
Someone come and help me
Cause I need you
To guide me through

You kept me in that hellhole
For three whole years
My dear, now
You don't understand all the pain you've caused
Inside and out
Not just to me
But everyone around me

Run away, from all the pain
Run away, get me out of this place
I can't handle this confusion
I'm unable to understand
Someone come and help me
Cause I need you
To guide me through

I love you
I hate you
I kiss you
I miss you
You torture me
You pleasure me
What should I do
I'm so fuckin' confused

Run away, from all the pain

Run away, get me out of this place
I can't handel this confusion
I'm unable to understand
Someone come and help me
Cause I need you
To guide me through
