Everything happened so fast
Like a train running off it's track
Everyone who I thought would stay
Just went and walked away

No one will explain
No one wants to stay
What the hell went wrong today?

Even though everyone's closed the door
I'll still be coming back for more
Because I've been here since the start
And my mind's not changing now
No I'll never turn my back on you
Because you mean everything to me
People will change, days will go by
But I'll be that shoulder you lean on when you cry

You've always stuck by my side
And I'll always be at yours
No matter what, no matter where
I will be there

No one will explain
No one wants to stay
What the hell went wrong today?

Even though everyone's closed the door
I'll still be coming back for more
Because I've been here since the start
And my mind's not changing now
No I'll never turn my back on you
Because you mean everything to me
People will change, days will go by
But I'll be that shoulder you lean on when you cry

Don't you ever regret, anything you said
Because they need to learn
How to be a friend
And after every thing's done and said
Just go and forget about them

No one will explain
No one wants to stay
What the hell went wrong today?

Even though everyone's closed the door
I'll still be coming back for more
Because I've been here since the start
And my mind's not changing now
No I'll never turn my back on you
Because you mean everything to me
People will change, days will go by
But I'll be that shoulder you lean on when you cry
