1.

I'm looking to the whore risin'
She keeps me up every step of the way,
I guess it ain't so surprising
The funny feeling never going away.
I don't remember my number
I just remember my name
U-better check your pulse before you look the same

2.

Before the living was easy
Before the shift of the planets and stars
I fell asleep bright'n'breezy
Now all I hear is the parking of cars
And all the stars shinin' brightly
Now everyone has a name

They're moving everso quietly - Out the game.

(Chorus)

Cause if you see me scratchin'
Round the base o' ma spine
I'm just a-searchin' for something
That's a-no longer mine.

So if you see me sleepin'
In the middle of the day,
I'm just tryin' to catch something
That keeps movin' away.

This Hairy Music's got me
With such a sweet allure
This hairy music
Keeps me alive for suuuuure!
