So empty inside and I'm loosin' my pride Thrill exploding out of me
Down to the ground and my head's full o'sound
No innocence between
A victim of circumstance
Never had a chance
Sacrificed without a fight
Carry on with this lie
No matter how hard I try Suffering one last time and you don't know
I'll touch and add you to my fame
Welcome to my wonderland
I'll never understand why
Have I lived before
The illness and lies
The virus never dies
Rain may fall 'round me
I can't drawn me out
It's my last final step
Checkmate in red
Trying to make a stand, trying to hold a hand as my bridges burn to the ground
I violate and I think I feel hate as I stare my demons down
I kept you under the sun
Away from the cold
I sheltered you from the storm
The evil alive, no guiding, no hide
I see the look inside
My magic hand
Will strike you down and rule the land
I'll take the crown
