Stir up the nation into war they will believe the things you preach just need another thrill indeed still got to prove you're never weak [chorus]
Calling for the holy war you always need in the name of your god you won't fade away promised all a place in the hall of fame you know they'll follow you whenever you must go... to fight Seducer of a nation blind they're givin' you this sacrifice just instigate the poison seed a need to feed the flames of hate
