I had everything
it never was enough for me to be free
I ride the wings of destiny
breaking all the rules
I have to set my spirit free
I'm gonna show you what I need Seems like it's just another game escape from nowhere I'm making other people bleed just for the thrill Innocent, innocent, innocent until caught I'm like a renegade
I broke the chains of innocence on the run I've sacrificed my blood for free time to free my soul you won't chain my will again I'm gonna show you what I mean Feels like an endless odyssey out of the shadows what they gave is what they got I'm bound to lose
Breaking all the rules
I had to set my spirit free now I'm free now time is running out for me my blood runs cold
I feel no shame for all my sins and now I'm gone my soul is free Seemed like it's just another game
I escaped from nowhere
I ride the wind across the sky
no more pain
