"Into The Fire"

We sink and drown
we're bound to fail it seems we are to blame for this disaster some not afraid some don't feel scared they never feel the shame for what they're doin' Father forgive us for we know not what we do nothing would ever change our ways everyday this planet earth is dyin' more and more is it too late now?
Into the fire we burn
It's sad to know It's bad to see that we have turned to oceans blue to gray
We broke the rules we've talked too much never a thought about the world we're always raping
DOG DAYS COMING DOWN
Another day messed up again I'm really bound to fail these days I've got no place where I can hide I'm down on my luck again I've never been a superstitious fool this life is just a bitch to me tell me what's wrong Dog days comin' down
it's the time when you're just loosin'
Dog days comin' down
I can't make this sacrifice I never thought that I could fall and I can't come in from the rain too many things went wrong again ti takes away my piece of mind It's like a monkey on my back again just like a needle in my skin ain't got it right
