Braintax:

First of all for all the heads who don't know by now
Im gonna start from the top and break it all right down
My moniker is Braintax when Im spitting on wax
Or when Im making a track but when Im sending a fax
I sign J Christie on a licence contract cos Im on my own label

And it's called Low Life

Putting records in the shops since 92

A lot of people don't know and think this heres brand new

I gotta shout out Destiny from Catch A Groove days

For buying in my records trekking round in a haze

Through the West End, back then me and my best friend,

But now Braintax is a one-man scheme

And all my friends contribute to this solo team

I know I mean what I say plus I know what I mean

Do you know what I mean? This is Biro Funk

And it feels like a giro and a henry of skunk

See I - got the beats from Harry Love I do shows with

And me and Mystro got flows and now you know mate.

Ive been rapping since the Toxteth riots

So you new jack, American-wannabees need to stay quiet

Im mad at life cos I don't really wanna be here

My Benny Live track will make you see clear

Like The Grip - Jehst beat - politics, know the dark shit

Low Life is depth, dopeness we start shit and show paths

Not in it for the laughs

And looking after business though I still hate maths

But I love cash, every 20 notes a brick

In my house in the sun that's why Im up at half 1

I swore to stop writing punchline nonsense

And now it takes longer but I penetrate your conscience

(Whos this?) No-one else sounds like Brains, you get me ?

North plus South and my mood ? Well, it's tetchy
