Seems like everyday we're starting over
I go in and out and in again
Some days are better than others

Just to get a taste
Of a woman with such grace
I will remember
Fall down and you get back up again

I know this night seems like it's gonna rain
Sometimes everything feels wrong
I feel it slippin' and I'm holding on
But for now, it's gonna be alright

Got my walking stick and my battle scars
We've gone in and out and in again
This door has never been open before

Just to get a taste
Of a woman with such grace
I will remember
Fall down and you get back up again

I know this night seems like it's gonna rain
Sometimes everything feels wrong
I feel it slippin' when I'm holding on
But for now, it's gonna be alright

I will remember
Fall down and you get back up again

I know this night seems like it's going to rain
Sometimes everything feels wrong
But for now it's gonna be alright
